

Precautionary Measures before Flood

Build protective walls around your house

Avoid construction in riverbanks and flood-prone areas

Install electrical outlets at a higher elevation above the ground

Do not stop or park near a river

Stay informed about a flood by listening to news updates on the radio or television

